VOL. 1

Since the Beginning...

Americans have based this great nation on exploration and discovery-- Traveling over the highest peaks, through the lowest valleys and from sea to shining sea. Our ancestors cut paths, blazed trails, and laid new roads to make it easier to find these "Oh" so amazing sights and splendors. Seeing new things and going to new places IS the American dream... "TRAVEL"

You can date travel all the way back to our earliest ancestors, traveling thousands of miles from their countries of origin to America, for the hope of something new and exciting. From the earliest settlers who traveled to America for a new life of excitement and to establish new world settlements, the travel need continued to grow as the new Americans began to travel this great nation. Passed on from generation to generation like a family trait, traveling is in our blood, and on our minds-- Wondering what there is to do and discover in the amazing places we've never seen.

Now over 200 years later it is still the greatest thing to do in the world. From going to visit family and friends, to a vacation in a new place that you've always wanted to see, or just a plain out-of-the-norm getaway. Since traveling has been around so long, why not let generations of traveling experts help you satisfy the urge? US Coach Tours, celebrating its 108th year of traveling the glorious USA, is proud to share its 5 generations of American traveling expertise and all of our Country's secret hidden places with you.
